

The Flame Veils danced.

And so the kind king
tragically lost his flame.
Afterwards, he gathered the neighboring nations and marched to the centre of the continent.

and became the first emperor of the Great Empire.

I wonder what
this story is trying to teach us, Mom?

COME PLANN

It's saying that even if you're at a disadvantage,
it's possible to creep out ahead politically if you have a just cause.

One should always have a just cause for war.

No, that's not it.

It's saying that you born into the Frisanov family...

will not have
back with women for many generations
to come.

I am dreaming.

LONE RANGERS

Abide in the Wind

Episode - Rebirth (Part 1)

Story - Art

Shin Wool

I am the fourth prince of Kingdom Earthside.
Numerically, it's not a very significant position.

Since the establishment of this kingdom,
the king's position has never changed.
The king and his ministers have all lived well past their expected lifespan,
but still have their youthful appearance,
resulting in the revolt of the first and second princes, which stemmed from their dissatisfaction.

After many disappointments and much progress, the kingdom declared that the prisons of this kingdom are nothing but seeds of revolution for the future.

This is but a fragment of my memories from twelve years ago.

Rui

I cannot find a better and anyone who says this is just a dream. I know it's not.

LONE MANGA

Wake up.

Rui

Excuse?

You've got a slight favor, but otherwise you look fine.

Thank goodness.

Why are you here...?

I was moving with the queen consort, Her Highness...

Right, we got a bit behind on the way.

For never were their uniforms before. Every single one of them moved
like a Construct.

They had superhuman strength...!

Wife-Where are we right now? What's happening? What about the ones who ambushed us?

Quiet.

LONE MAREKA!

We're on the second floor in the abandoned
house next to the Red Rock Passage.

The ones who ambushed you dragged
the queen consort, Her Highness and you here.

Her Highness is downstairs right now.

She's still safe

I heard the story
and rushed just right away that they were dangerous than I thought

The Dragon
Architect I had contracted to help
from destruction

I'm not a Contractor
right now.

But... You're a First Class Contractor,
aren't you?

My counterpart
had a Halfblood Dragon Antique with him

that we've just tools that can be exchanged at any time...

Their efforts
were in vain!

LONE HUNTER

Don't say
such things!

You're my only brother!

there is a Hidden Dragon Artifact
here right now.

54th Kingdom Year Abandoned house by
the Red Rock Passage

It's been a while, Sonnie.

LONE MAN

Yuffie of Ido.

Upon hearing of a lord's that dined with Hidden Lords, I know it was you.

It's been around
five years, after or not?
I'm glad to see that you are doing well.

Sonnie, I want to have Hidden Mueyuk
back at our side.

Your king was chosen
by her, yet he chose to wed
another human, and used her powers to seal her.

Mueyuk? Is that the name
of the thing
underground?

What do
they mean by,
[chosen]?

Do not insult
her any longer, and return her to where she belongs.

ONE MANGA!

Starting here we then now brings back
memories of the War
of Independence.

We're still grateful
for your cooperation
back then.

Thanks to you,
we discovered many
other things.

However, you forgot to tell us the most important bits
of information.

The ones who forced the king to send another hundred were you
disgracing beings

... The humans and Inuagi have a non-aggression pact. We never killed any humans that entered our forest!

I only want to return her to where she belongs...

Lord Yagi, Lord Yagi. I'm not here for the ones you suddenly kidnapped.

I'm here to announce the terms that the Elders and Kingdom came to agree upon.

This incident is your doing, and yours alone.

We will no longer offer for the Inuagi and humans who cross the borders.

That is what we have all agreed upon.

That means he won't make a move on us, even if you all die here.

Shin: Roar

Everyone, prepare for battle!

Your target is all the Inuagi here!

Don't let any get away!

LONG HANGAI!

Red, it's dangerous!
Stay behind me!

A dramatic scene of a large fire, likely a forest fire or a controlled burn. The fire is intense, with bright yellow and orange flames reaching upwards. In the foreground, several people are running through the flames, their figures silhouetted against the bright light. The background is dark, suggesting a night scene or a very dense forest. The overall atmosphere is one of urgency and danger.

The ground is burning
and the flames are rising

The smoke rising in the air and the flames
burning in the air

LONE MAN

SPD: Sure

In this...a Dragon, Ample...?

It's different from the ones I've seen before.

The Flame Vells are dancing.

I told you to keep them alive, didn't I? I was going to use them later!
What the hell is with this pile of corpses?!

We keep the other half alive.

Why couldn't
you just wait!...

Since we're alive,
I should just be quiet
and blend in with them
when the time comes...

The Counts
were back?

BOOM

BOOOOOOM

LONE MANG!!

Stravin!! How
dare you!!

CRACK

Now that we've come to this, I'll kill all the humans
here!!

He is finally revealed his true form

The snake is moving towards the abandoned
house!!

Wait, the queen
consort, Her Highness is still in there...

...Faltinuff Noo!

The queen's
mother...

...That's Lexion's
voice...

Prince Lexion!

That Image
lost his right as a Contractor because his mind became distorted.

Take the Lance
of Zalmorak,

and activate it.

What, Count Stravet about the Contractor's requirements?

What are the requirements for that Artifact?

Why would you ask him to activate an Artifact you know nothing about...?

It is too much of a request!

LONE MANGA!

The basic requirement for a Named Artifact is A strong mind that is not so easily shaken.

Since he's barely looked human to begin with, I honestly have no idea about anything else....

until he activates it.

I was wondering
why the ocean
couldn't get out.

Is he trying to take revenge?

ONE

Kugh...

You're going to try and fight an insect with your bare hands?

C-Count Stravin,
why aren't you going
in to save the planet
right now?!

If you act
now, you can easily
settle this!

SHIN MANGA!

A 3D rendered robot with a metallic, cylindrical body. It has a large, expressive eye with a blue iris and a black pupil. The robot is shown from the chest up, with its head tilted slightly. A speech bubble is attached to its mouth. The background is a dark, textured surface.

Why must I do
so, Little Prince?

I don't even have to lift a finger, and that little thing will die off by itself

Frankly speaking
I'm too tired to raise
a single woman.

and the same goes for my underlings.

Sage: Prince Eason
offered to be the counsellor.

NGA

don't get in the way.

ACTRESS

Lexion!!

Damn it, I can't hear you!!

I can't hear you!
